

THE WEEK'S BEST...

DVD

CRAZY, STUPID, LOVE, (M)

We don't feel crazy at saying it—we love this movie. It was one of the best romcoms of 2011. Cal (Steve Carell) is devastated after his wife reveals she's had an affair and wants a divorce. But wannabe actor Jacob (Ryan Reynolds) comes to his aid attempting to turn the dud into a star. Emma Stone is great as the girl who rejects Jacob's advances, as is Julianne Moore as Cal's conflicted wife.

MUSIC VIDEO

BLANK 182 AFTERMIDNIGHT

It's not exactly the sort of video you'd expect from a band who once ran naked through the streets in one of their clips. Then again, they're not 43 anymore, are they? This kind of dark one sees a fit and guy causing all sorts of destruction in a teen psychiatric ward before sharing a kiss on a balcony. Young, rancorous, love.

Brothers Vs Sisters

We pit the Stafford Brothers against the Nervo twins – which Aussie-sibling DJ duo is the biggest overseas success?

Stafford Brothers – Matt & Chris

Do you have someone to carry your records?

We do have an endless supply of friends who are constantly offering to carry the records but it's one of those things where we sort of like to hold onto them, because if you lose that, the whole night's gone.

How many sets of headphones do you have?

Like, boxes! There's so many, because we obviously get sent a lot of them and also we've smashed quite a lot of them over our time, so I would say there's boxes of headphones!

What's the last freebie you've been sent?

Lots of clothes. Lots and lots of clothes. When's the last time you had a good night's sleep? I would say months since we've had one of those – 10 hours in a row or something like that. "Sleep when you're dead" is our saying!

First class or economy? Both. It's more business, we'd say.

Have you stayed at any celebrity homes?

One of [our friends] was up at Erick Morillo's villa, but we didn't stay there. We've been to a few parties but haven't stayed anywhere. We actually went to the Nervo girls' villa when they had one in Ibiza this summer!

What's the biggest award you've received?

We won number one DJs in Australia this year!

Verdict It's a close call and having a TV show named after you is pretty cool, but sorry, boys, the girls have it on this one. It's pretty hard to compete with private jets and a Grammy!

Nervo – Mim & Liv

Do you have someone to carry your records?

We carry everything ourselves, because it's on a USB stick, so it's just in my back pocket!

How many sets of headphones do you have?

We have about 30, but we get sent a lot of them and they just break all the time when you're travelling, so it's not as many as it sounds like!

What's the best freebie you've been sent?

That would definitely be our mixing equipment, which Pioneer sent us.

When's the last time you had a good night's sleep? Probably about 10 days ago! We went to Bali for a week and the full moon definitely screwed up the sleep patterns!

First class or economy? Economy! Well, unless we're being flown in a private jet to play a party somewhere.

Have you stayed at any celebrity homes?

We played at Richard Branson's private island, Necker Island, and that was incredible. And we're at David Guetta's a lot. His wife Cathy is amazing with decorating. They've both just got a really good eye. Their house is like something out of a magazine.

What's the biggest award you've received?

That would have to be the Grammy [for When Love Takes Over, co-written with David Guetta]!

BRIT'S BIG YEAR

It's shaping up to be a massive year for Britney Spears. For starters, she's planning her wedding to Jason Trawick. And we should get some more music from the pop star – at least a single or two. Late last year, Brit leaked two tracks – Strangest Love and a stripped-back version of the Femme Fatale bonus track Don't Keep Me Waiting. Of course, we're still waiting for Australian tour news.

WHAT'S HOT

Commitment-phobes, here's your saving grace

AUSSIE-MADE VIEWING

THE STRAITS

Thursday, 10.30pm, ABC 1

The story: This homegrown crime drama follows the illegal operations of the Montebellos, a drug-smuggling family who rule Queensland's Far North. They're tough, but they have heart – and the best bit is that boss daddy, Harry Montebello (Brian Cox), has decided it's time his three (two largely incompetent, and one on the straight and narrow) sons compete to become his successor. Underbelly's Feras Dirani (left) returns to our screens as one of the Montebello boys.

Why watch it: Let's call it the Aussie version of The Sopranos – there's plenty of hooning, hotted-up Holdens and biker bullies.

The name to remember: Suzannah Bayes-Morton. She plays the Montebello daughter, Sissi (right), and is a breath of fresh air among the guns and guy talk.

What will get you talking: The gore – think a dead baddie being fed to hungry crocs...

TV FOR TWO
 A show for both you and the man to enjoy!

REAL-LIFE DRAMA

SELLING HOUSES AUSTRALIA

Wednesday, 8.30pm, Lifestyle

The Selling Houses Australia crew never fail to make the most unliveable abodes sell. They don't let us down when the much-anticipated fifth season kicks off, either – there's a flood-damaged disaster zone in Queensland to make over, and hopefully, restore to its homely origin.

KINGS CROSS ER

Thursday, 7.30pm,

Crime & Investigation Network

Forget about McDreamy! These Aussie doctors will provide heart palpitations, too. The good-looking bunch at St Vincent's Hospital will set hearts racing as they attend to cleaning up Sydney's busiest hotspot, Kings Cross. Check in for episode one and see the team deal with a nightclub stabbing and an intoxicated reveler who has fallen off a cliff.

NOT RIGHT NOW

— a guide to the must-see shows of the season to keep you in the know

ROCKING THE BOX

THE STAFFORD BROTHERS

Friday, 8.30pm, Fox 8

The story: Australia's most popular and super successful DJs, the Stafford Brothers, return with a second series of their unscripted reality series that follows the siblings around the world on their party, ahem... we mean work adventures, as they try to stay at the top of the industry. Why watch it: While the brothers, Matt and Chris, are good looking and total characters themselves, their entourage are also stand-outs and definitely worth a watch.

The name to remember: Joey Lamatina (inset) — the guys' flamboyant manager. What will get you talking: Joey's cleansing stint in a Thai health-rehab treatment centre. 'Nuff said really...

Chris (at back) and Matt's reality series is sure to get you hooked!

BROTHERLY TRUTHS

The biggest parter is... '[Me] only because I'm older and therefore have partied longer,' Matt says. Who is more popular with the ladies? Chris says it's him, 'I guess it makes it easier for me when I'm single, although I think Matt's batting way above his average with [his girlfriend, bikini model] Brooke.' Who has the worst habit? 'Matt. He grows his hair to ridiculous lengths,' Chris says. Who is the jealous brother? 'Chris gets jealous because of my amazing hair,' laughs Matt, who often has shoe envy of his smaller-footed sibling. 'When we go shopping and Matt sees a pair of shoes. He asks for his size [13] and most of the time they don't have them so I swoop in and get them in my size [11]. He hates it,' Chris reveals.

RED-HOT REALITY

PLEASE MARRY MY BOY

Monday, 8.45pm, Channel 7

The story: Four mums team up with their single sons to help them find love. Three lucky gals are selected by Mum after a series of dates.

Why watch it: If you love The Farmer Wants a Wife, this is pretty much the same deal, except with mums... and no awkward D&Ms on hay bales.

The name to remember: Sorry single lads, but from what we've seen so far, Mum Milena Lalic (inset) is the star of this show.

What will get you talking: How the girls act in front of their possible mother-in-laws... no shame!

NEW 'IT' US SHOW

REVENGE

The story: The title of this show says it all — it centres around young Amanda Clarke (Emily VanCamp), who has changed her name to Emily Thorne and moved to The Hamptons where she intends to, you guessed it, get revenge on those responsible for her dad's death. Why watch it: This suspense-heavy drama has it all — rich kids behaving badly, a good-looking cast, conniving characters and a flashy backdrop.

The name to remember: Madeleine Stowe plays Victoria Grayson, and as far as TV villains go, she's top dog. She was even nominated for a Golden Globe for her icy efforts.

What will get you talking: How did Eric van der Woodsen of Gossip Girl fame (played by Connor Paolo) wind up in The Hamptons pretending he's not gay?

COMING SOON!

Channel 7 assures us we haven't got long to wait now
